The Wayback Machine - https://web.archive.org/web/20100613144101/http://www.houwie.net:80/ntelegrafie/ntele10.html

Nautical telegraphy
Holidays and amusements

← Contents
Inhoud
Start

The Nautical Telegraph Code Book
And Postal Guide

Holidays and amusements

ADVICE

A WORD BEFORE LEAVING

No person should ever go on a holiday without "The Nautical Code." Besides being enabled to send strictly private messages without disfiguring Post Cards, There are many other reasons why you should have a copy with you. If once you use the "Nautical" these reasons will present themselves. It van be obtained from all Nautical Booksellers. We would urge all travellers to use the Nautical Code. It's the simplest, the most concise, and therefore the best.

	CODE WORD	MEANING
R:
1	Reel	Coming home on leave; expect a long holiday.
2	Reeming	Taking a few days' holiday here.
3	Reeve	Taking a few weeks' holiday here.
4	Reeved	Doctor recommends a seaside holiday; am writing.
5	Reeving	Not returning in ship; recruiting health here.
6	Refloat	Going down to the coast again.
7	Reflow	Going down to the coast again to cath steamer.
8	Refraction	Must return home for holiday; am in bad health.
9	Refuge	You certainly ought to go on a holiday.
10	Regatta	Hope you had enjoyable holiday. When do you return?
11	Register	Come home, you are in need of a holiday.
12	Relieving	Hope I shall be home by next Bank holiday.
13	Reload	Where do you spend your holidays this year?
14	Render	I shall wait for my holidays until you come home.
15	Repairs	Should like to go to -- for my holidays.
16	Reserve	Have been invited to spend a holiday at --.
17	Reset	Let me know when you will be likely to get holidays.
18	Resign	Before you go on your holidays send me address.
19	Retire	Am afraid I shall get no holidays this year.
20	Rhumb	I have been invited to go to --. What do you think?
21	Ribband	Yes; I should be pleased for you to do so.
22	Rigging	No; I don't think it suitable. I will write.
23	Rigout	You must send me money to go on my holidays.
24	Ringbolt	My health has improved wonderfully down here.
25	Ringrope	I don't like this place. I shall return home.
26	Ringtail	Holidays postponed; am wiritng to explain.
27	Ripple	I am spending a few days at --, and reaminder at --.
28	Rippling	If you are likely to return before I take my holidays, wire.
29	River	-- not well; am going to take him (or her) to health-resort.
30	Rivet	Holidays commence on the --.
31	Riveter	Am now going on holiday to --.
32	Riveting	I expect to return in a few days (or about the --).
33	Rivulet	Join me at --; will wait for you.
34	Roads	Can you recommend me spending holidays at --?
35	Roadstead	I shall soon be home; we will spend holidays together.
36	Rocky	Let me know where to write you during holidays.
37	Roller	You had better take a holiday. I feel sure your state of health requires one.
38	Rollick	Go to -- for a holiday.
39	Rosin	Go to -- for holidays. I will join you there.
40	Rough	Write to -- Hotel. I am spending a holiday here.
41	Route	Have been obliged to bring -- here for change of air. Shall return shortly.
42	Routine	Am here on holiday; wish you were with me. Shall be returning home in a few days. Writing.
43	Rudder	I do wish you were down here with me, holiday would be far more enjoyable. Am writing you a long letter. Much love.
44	Rummage	Glad to hear you are taking a holiday. I should like to be with you, but am looking forward to that pleasure in the near future. Much love.
45	Run	Most miserable and lonely here without you. Hope you will have a good long holiday upon your return.
46	Runnel	Work delayed by holidays, so do not expect to be home as soon as anticipated.
47	Running	Try and arrange to spend holidays with me.
48	Rushy	Shall take a long holiday ashore after this voyage.
49	Russe	Am going abroad for holidays.
50	Rutty	Taking a sea trip for health.
51	Ruxot	Take the Nautical Code with you when you go on your holidays; there is great fun in it.

* Names of ports or place should follow code word if not understood between sender and receiver.

webdesign & copyright
© 2001-2003 Eveline